

Austin Preparatory School

Reading, Massachusetts

This project was a total renovation and updating of the original library. The project hinged on duplicating a custom finish already established within this library.

A special feature of this project was incorporating the preparatory school's logo with wood lasering into the back of the chair backs (right bottom photo).

Completion Date: October 2008
Library Solution: Deveraux Tables and Computer Stations
Materials: American Red Oak

