

Southbury Public Library

Southbury, Connecticut

This library was designed to fit within a residential neighborhood. Jasper Library Furniture utilized coped solids, waterfall edges and fluted legs to achieve the elegance Southbury desired for their residents. Integrated signage for the end panels gives a finished look to the space.

Square Feet: 34,000
Completion Date: 2007
Architect: Tuthill and Wells Architects
Custom Design: Janis Newell of JNI Designs
Library Solution: Tables, Computer Stations, OPAC, Dictionary Stands, Atlas Stands, and Shelving End Panels
Materials: Maple Solids and Veneers

